PRESS RELEASE

From time to time one or more vacancies exist on the Clarion County Planning Commission, and the County Commissioners are looking for people who are interested in helping the County plan and prepare for its future. We need people from the different walks of life – construction, planning or permitting, mobile home industry, teaching, etc. We also try to have a broad geographic representation among the members.

Four-Year Term

Meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month
7:00 p.m. – Administrative Building
330 Main Street, Clarion, Pennsylvania

If you are interested in serving on the Clarion County Planning Commission, please submit a letter of interest, your resume' and at least two letters of personal recommendation to:
